

Curriculum vitae

Michael Klein

Head of Production Daimler Buses and member of management of EvoBus GmbH

Michael Klein, born on November 29, 1963, is Head of Production Daimler Buses and member of the management board of EvoBus GmbH.

He started his career at Daimler in 2003 as Chief Financial Officer at EvoBus (UK) Ltd. in Coventry, UK. In 2007, he took over cross-divisional sales controlling at Daimler AG in Stuttgart. In 2008, he returned to Daimler Buses, where he initially was responsible for the sales controlling of EvoBus GmbH including the CSP business (Customer Services & Parts) and the subsidiaries. At the end of 2012, he took over as Head of Customer Services & Parts, managing the after-sales business of Daimler Buses. He had overall CSP responsibility with functions such as spare parts sales, pricing, logistics, training and technical customer service. In this role, Michael Klein has set the course for the future business of Daimler Buses by introducing new, digital service and support offerings under the OMNIplus ON brand, among other things.

Since August 1, 2020, Michael Klein is Head of Production Daimler Buses and Managing Director Production in the management board of EvoBus GmbH.
